

The purpose of the Humanities curriculum:

Conviction: To develop an understanding of the world so that we can navigate through it with confidence.

Ambition: To dream beyond our local areas and to explore the world!

Reflection: To understand the world and it's history so that I may reflect on my background and make sense of where I belong.

Determination: To be inspired by people of the past and present so that I may follow in their footsteps.

Key Stage

3

World War 1

What were the causes of WW1? Was anyone to blame? How did the war end?

World War 2

What were the causes of another world war? How did women participate? What role did the British Empire play?

Hidden gems

What are the hidden gems within our local area? What did our local area look like 100 years ago?

Sea Pollution

Do the turtles happily swim with our plastic bottles? What happens to plastic when it meets the sea?

Rivers

Do all rivers lead into the sea? What happens to a river when it goes into a mountain?

Community Challenge

What charities support our local community? Trips to our local area.

Key Stage

4

How does History affect us today?

An exploration into different world events; from the Hiroshima bombing to the partition of India. This topic explores different global historical events that have shaped the world that we know today.

The Fire World

An investigation into Volcanoes. What happened in Pompeii? Are there still active volcanoes in the world?

Natural Disasters

An exploration into earthquakes around the world and their aftermath.

Migration Vs Immigration

Why do people move? In this unit we look back into history to explore the reasons why people move location.

Inspirational People

What makes someone inspirational? An exploration into people who have shaped the world that we live in today.

Where will studying Humanities take you?

You could be the next :

journalist; human rights lawyer; UN commissioner; Ambassador for humanitarian work; author; historian;

